COUNTRY _	East Germany REPORT NO.	es un
TCPIC	Military Information from Oranienburg	25X1
Towns to the State of		n draw Walled John
EVALUATION		POSE MILITARIA SERVICIO DE LA
DATE OF CO	NTENT 1 to 18 May 1953 25X1	ster Strand Napole (de Adelle Venigle V
DATE OBTAI	NED DATE PREPARED 17 June 1953 25X1	erretat papar de galego de cale sus se
REFERENCE	S	. LL: DE BERGER HER HELDE STEEL SE
PAGES	3 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
REMARKS_		or maniemiero ntroperierie
Market Strategy (No. 1971)		e en elemente de la companya de la c
New Walleton or section for the country of the coun		er en generalisat materiale au au to and defined that or supply to the same that the same to		e wood, een gelak eel ake ee oo je
 X1 25X
1. 25X1	camp, including the former Panzerschule, Oranienburg, was occupied by about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery or motor transport insignia; blue-bordered black epaulets,
25X1 25X 25X1 25X1	camp, including the former Panzerschule, Oranienburg, was occupied by about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery or motor transport insignia; blue-bordered black epaulets, black-bordered black epaulets, and black-bordered crimson epaulets. On 11 May, two T-34 tanks were seen in the training area north of the quarters, and trucks were seen at driving practice in the area west of the quarters. At about 4 p.m. on 11 May, SP guns were entrained at the Oranienburg railroad station. not able to observe their departure, On 16 May, four tanks were in front of building No 149, and billeting equipment was carried in the yard from buildings Nos 82 and 150. Thirty-four soldiers armed with carbines and submachine guns entered the installation through gate No I. From 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. on 18 May, three tanks, were seen in the training area north of the billeting area, engaged in driving school practices.	25
25X1 25X 25X1 25X1 25X1	camp, including the former Panzerschule, Oranienburg, was occupied by about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery or motor transport insignia; blue-bordered black epaulets, black-bordered black epaulets, and black-bordered crimson epaulets. On 11 May, two T-34 tanks were seen in the training area north of the quarters, and trucks were seen at driving practice in the area west of the quarters. At about 4 p.m. on 11 May, SP guns were entrained at the Oranienburg railroad station. not able to observe their departure. On 16 May, four tanks were in front of building No 149, and billeting equipment was carried in the yard from buildings Nos 82 and 150. Thirty-four soldiers armed with carbines and submachine guns entered the installation through gate No I. From 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. on 18 May, three tanks, were seen in the training area north of the billeting area, engaged in driving school practices. 1 Between 8 and 15 May, that section of the Weisse Stadt settlement in Oranienburg occupied by the Soviet Army, was occupied by only a few Soviet soldiers and the garages were vacant. Work was still under way in building No 5, which was scheduled to be completed by 20 May. Between 1 and 7 May, the Soviet-occupied section of the Sachsenhausen	25X 25
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 3.	camp, including the former Panzerschule, Oranienburg, was occupied by about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery or motor transport insignia; blue-bordered black epaulets, black-bordered black epaulets, and black-bordered crimson epaulets. On 11 May, two T-34 tanks were seen in the training area north of the quarters, and trucks were seen in the training area north of the quarters, and trucks were entrained at the Oranienburg railroad station. Inot able to observe their departure. On 16 May, four tanks were in front of building No 149, and billeting equipment was carried in the yard from buildings Nos 82 and 150. Thirty-four soldiers armed with carbines and submachine guns entered the installation through gate No I. From 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. on 18 May, three tanks, were seen in the training area north of the billeting area, engaged in driving school practices. I between 8 and 15 May, three tanks are engaged in driving school practices. I between 8 and 15 May, should by the Soviet Army, was occupied by only a few Soviet soldiers and the garages were vacant. Work was still under way in building No 5, which was scheduled to be completed by 20 May. Between 1 and 7 May, the Soviet-occuried section of the Sachsenhausen concentration cemp was occupied as previously. Almost daily, 4 to 5 trucks, loaded with billeting equipment, construction material and iron goods, left the billeting area, proceeding toward Sachsenhausen.	25 25 25
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 2. 25X1 3.	camp, including the former Panzerschule, Oranienburg, was occupied by about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery or motor transport insignia; blue-bordered black epaulets, black-bordered black epaulets, and black-bordered crimson epaulets. On 11 May, two T-34 tanks were seen in the training area morth of the quarters, and trucks were seen at driving practice in the area west of the quarters. At about 4 p.m. on 11 May, SP guns were entrained at the Oranienburg railroad station. not able to observe their departure. On 16 May, four tanks were in front of building No 149, and billeting equipment was carried in the yard from buildings Nos 82 and 150. Thirty-four soldiers armed with carbines and submachine guns entered the installation through gate No I. From 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. on 18 May, three tanks, were seen in the training area north of the billeting area, engaged in driving school practices. 1 Between 8 and 15 May, that section of the Weisse Stadt settlement in Oranienburg occupied by the Soviet Army, was occupied by only a few Soviet soldiers and the garages were vacant. Work was still under way in building No 5, which was scheduled to be completed by 20 May. Between 1 and 7 May, the Soviet-occupied section of the Sachsenhausen concentration comp was occupied as previously. Almost daily, 4 to 5 trucks, loaded with billeting equipment, construction material and iron goods,	25 25 25 25
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 3.	camp, including the former Panzerschule, Oranienburg, was occupied by about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery or motor transport insignia; blue-bordered black epaulets, black-bordered crimson epaulets. On 11 May, two T-34 tanks were seen in the training area morth of the quarters, and trucks were seen in the training area morth of the quarters, and trucks were seen at driving practice in the area west of the quarters. At about 4 p.m. on 11 May, SP guns were entrained at the Oranienburg railroad station. Into able to observe their departure. On 16 May, four tanks were in front of building No 149, and billeting equipment was carried in the yard from buildings Nos 82 and 150. Thirty-four soldiers armed with carbines and submachine guns entered the installation through gate No I. From 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. on 18 May, three tanks, were seen in the training area north of the billeting area, engaged in driving school practices. 1 Between 8 and 15 Nay, that section of the Weisse Stadt sett ement in Oranienburg occupied by the Soviet Army, was occupied by only a few Soviet soldiers and the garages were vacant. Work was still 2 under way in building No 5, which was scheduled to be completed by 20 May. Between 1 and 7 May, the Soviet-occupied section of the Sachsenhausen concentration comp was occupied as previously. Almost daily, 4 to 5 trucks, loaded with billeting area, proceeding toward Sachsenhausen. Left the billeting area, proceeding toward Sachsenhausen.	25 25 25 25 25

500

SECRET

		SECRET,	•	25X1
			a- 3 a
25X1		Lieutenant Colonel Markin (fnu) belongs to the unidentified motor transport battalion of the division. The buildings are numbered to a sketch
25X1	2.	is commanding officer of which remained in the Wei	a rear detail of an un sse Stadt restricted a	own from previous reports, identified headquarters rea e buildings were reconditioned.	25X1
		orricer at the Sachsenhau	sen concentration comp	azelenko (fnu) was suppl y until August 1952.

SECRET.